Hi Tanya

This product has passed the audit. The formulation matches the ingredients listed on the product.

Good Afternoon,

Recently the RHA team sent an Chemical Audit letter to Aldi in relation to its product – Aldi Prince Shower Gel for Mel 1L – following a severity 3 incident (Consumer is still having issues relating to sight). Please find Aldi's response to the audit letter above.

Can you please advise if there are any issues from a chemicals point of view in relation to this product, and please advise if Aldi have passed this audit.

regards

Dear Tanya,

Please find attached communications from ALDI in relation to the ACCC's correspondence regarding the Prince Shower Gel product.

I wish to advise that it has recently come to my attention that Mr Joshua Leach, ACCC Senior Recalls Officer of Product Safety Branch, has contacted BWES/Trendpac in relation to the the same case MR9922, B# 580575 because of the association with the recalled batch (# 583048). Could you please confirm whether his communication relate solely to supplier or were they are relevant to ALDI? If the communications are relevant to ALDI, could you please kindly remind Mr Leach about ALDI's communication protocol with the ACCC that we discussed last week, and ask him to email the correspondence to myself and compliance@aldi.com.au. I will await your confirmation about this matter prior to ALDI responding to this matter should it be required.

Finally, thank you for following up about ALDI's communication protocol last week. As discussed, your assistance is greatly appreciated.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you wish to discuss this matter on 04332929777.

Thank you.

Cheerio
