Hi all, and apologies for the late response, I have been at a funeral. I am happy with the on camera discussion as outlined by Scott, but we need to avoid discussion of the live court proceedings.
Many thanks
Wendy

Thanks all,

There are a few sensitivities here including matters before the court. This said, I think there is a clear line of contribution we can make on the broader issues, our past activity in the area and our ongoing interest through current investigations.

I support agreeing to on camera and pleased to work on possible talking points.

Regards

Scott

Elise given that conduct impacting Indigenous Australians is one of our enduring priorities I think it is worth doing the interview on camera.

As you are aware we continue to be named in the hearings of the Standing Parliamentary looking at these issues.

Thanks Delia. To clarify, this would not be in relation to anything before the Courts, i.e. Birubi.

While my instincts are to agree to do an on camera, however, given that we're in court, I'd take advice from Wendy on the request. As we've provided backgrounding the need for us to do it is reduced.

Cheers

Hi Scott, Delia

See below from 60 Minutes. Thanks for your time and detailed background you provided yesterday, Scott, it was great.

Delia – Rod is not checking emails for the rest of today so looping you into this request. We were asked to provide background for a forthcoming 60 Minutes story on fake Indigenous art.

All - do you think we should consider this request to speak on camera on the record? We would not have to name the businesses, obviously, but I think it a good opportunity to talk about the type of conduct/practices we find concerning, and send a wider deterrence message.

Regards
Elise

Hello Elise,

Thanks so much for lining up the chat yesterday with Scott Gregson. Really appreciate it.

Given it was only for background purposes, [REDACTED]

I was hoping to include a line about it in our story.

No problem if not.

Many thanks,
